

I am writing to state my opposition to any weakening of the Do Not Call law in New Jersey. It is clear by the overwhelming public enrollment on the Do Not Call list, that the citizens want this law as it exists now. I hope the FCC considers the right to privacy as more important than the right to conduct business by intrusion.